

I am strongly against a few broadcast companies owning the majority of stations nationwide. I feel diversity in this market to be imperative to preserve our freedom of speech. I am surprised that at this time especially we would wish to diminish this precious right.